

2018 MSEA INSTRUCTION & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

Social Justice for the Common Good

Poverty. Bias. Trauma. Discrimination. Online Safety.

Learn how you can become a more informed and aware educator at MSEA's 2018 IPD Conference—Social Justice for the Common Good.

March 10, 2018
8:00 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

Breakfast • Welcome
8:00–9:00 a.m.

Annapolis DoubleTree
210 Holiday Court
Annapolis, MD 21401

REGISTRATION: JANUARY 12–MARCH 1

Online pre-registration required:
marylandeducators.org/2018IPD

Limited seating available.
MSEA members only. FREE.
Breakfast and lunch included.

Join colleagues and presenters to tackle tough classroom issues like bias, student trauma, poverty, LGBT+, cyber safety, and discrimination in the workplace. Presenters include MSEA and NEA members and staff, plus experts from Bowie State University and the U.S. Department of Justice.

WORKSHOPS INCLUDE:

Real Talk: What Are You Willing to Do for Students Living in Poverty?

Bias, Who Me?? Unearthing Implicit Bias

Educators as Allies – Building Welcoming and Affirming Schools for LGBT Students

Innocence Stolen: Protecting Our Children Online

Creative and Collaborative Approaches to Trauma-Informed Instruction

9 Ways Educators Can Support Children Experiencing Trauma

Introducing the Trauma Toolkit for Educators developed by MSEA, First Book, and the Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL)

MSEA Legal Talk: Discrimination, Social Issues, and More

