I began in DC and have been in Charles County since 2006. I have a heart for people and a passion for teachers and students. Students are the unsharpened blessing of the future and the teachers are the dedicated laborers in the trenches.
	Jody Bell Position: Teacher School: Mitchell ES Local Association: EACC Member: MSEA 11 years/NEA 11 years I have been teaching for eleven years and I see firsthand the impacts of being a Union member. It is so vital for us as educators to be a part of the process that aides in the creation, implementation and negotiations of concepts that effect our jobs, lives and those of our students' lives.
	Lorraine Bell Position: Teacher School: Rising Sun ES Local Association: CCCTA Member: MSEA 13 years/NEA 13 years We are stronger together, and I will work hard to ensure that we are all heard and listened to. I believe in our profession and our union. As an active and vocal Representative, I would be honored to continue to serve as you NEA RA representative for 2017.

Jessica Brechbiel

Position: Teacher

School: Middleton ES

Local Association: EACC

Member: MSEA 3 years/NEA 3 years

This is my 4th year teaching at the Elementary School level. I love teaching for so many reasons, it'd be hard to list them here. That is why I'd love to serve my students & coworkers by being an elected delegate to represent the EACC.

Ryan Burbey

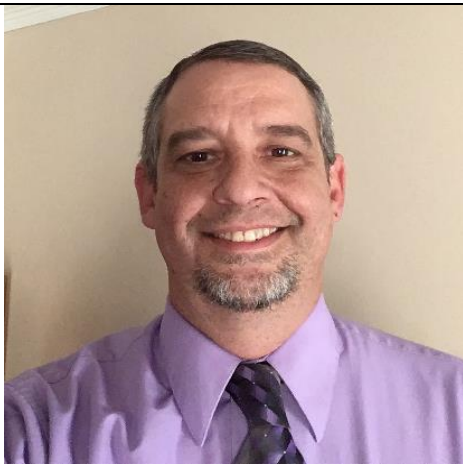

Position: Teacher

School: Local President

Local Association: HCEA(Harford)

Member: MSEA 14 years/NEA 14 years

As state delegate, I pledge to represent each of our members faithfully. I will vote to ensure our dues are well-spent only on vital programs. Likewise, I will work to ensure the decisions made at the NEA RA are true to our core mission of improving schools for kids and working conditions for teachers.

G. Michael Curry

Position: Teacher

School: North Harford MS

Local Association: HCEA(Harford)

Member: MSEA 14 years/NEA 14 years

I have been a member of HCEA/MSEA since I became a teacher in 2002. I have served as a building representative, representative of HCEA to the HCC-PTA's Board of Directors, Public Relations Committee, Negotiations Committee, Careers For Every Student organization, and HCEA Board of Directors. I would be proud to work for the HCEA/MSEA goals.

Michelle Darty

Position: Teacher

School: John Hanson MS

Local Association: EACC

Member: MSEA 12 years/NEA 12 years

I will work effectively for my colleagues to ensure their voice is heard and issues that matter are acted upon. As a teacher and an IST in K-12 schools throughout MD for 12 years, I have gained insight and ideas that will improve our schools for students, teachers and parents. I have ambition and determination.

Traci Davis

Position: Teacher

School: William A Diggs ES

Local Association: EACC

Member: MSEA 11 years/NEA 11 years

I would like to help my fellow educators to fight for educational issues that matter. I have been a delegate for my local and have been to the NEA convention for the past two years. I want to fight for what is right in the educational world.

Joseph Evans

Position: Teacher

School: Mattawoman MS

Local Association: EACC

Member: MSEA 1 years/NEA 1 years

I am interested in becoming a NEA delegate for the state of Maryland to help better education in Maryland and around the United States. I look forward to serving and hopefully receiving your vote as a 2017 NEA delegate in Boston.

Shane Hynson

Position: Education Support Professional

School: Lockerman MS

Local Association: CCEA(Caroline)

Member: MSEA 9 years/NEA 9 years

My name is Shane M. Hynson and I'm from Caroline County. I'm currently serving in my second term as Vice President for my local (CCEA) and I serve on various committees within my local. I serve on the Convention Arrangements Committee through MSEA. I'm also a 2015 graduate of the NEA Leaders for Tomorrow program.

Keah Mason

Position: Teacher

School: Walter J. Mitchell ES

Local Association: EACC

Member: MSEA 7 years/NEA 7 years

I have worked as an elementary school teacher for the past seven years, and I plan to continue my career in education. As a delegate and member, I want to express the needs, concerns, and questions of other educators. I also want to learn more instructional strategies that will benefit my students.

Linda McLaughlin

Position: Teacher

School: Local President

Local Association: EACC

Member: MSEA 11 years/NEA 21 years

I am a fierce advocate for educators and what is best for students. Previously I have been a local VP, local GR chair, MSEA delegate, NEA delegate, co-chair of the MSEA elections committee at NEA, Emerging Leader and currently local president. I want to be involved and make a difference. Please vote for me.

Joe McMahan
