JULY 14-17, 2020 • SALISBURY UNIVERSITY

TAKIN' IT NEW SCHOOL! UNION VALUES FOR OUR TIME

At SLC 2020, we'll explore the rich history of the brave union activists whose legacy is the foundation of the exciting new union movement we've seen in the past several years. But let's be real—it's not 1926, so we're takin' it new school! Discover the issues and skills that are making the new union movement relevant and successful for educators and give hope to our students, schools, and communities.

THREE REASONS
NOT TO MISS SLC20

T(Ed) Talks Hear union activists from across the country talk about the success of building traditional union power and how they have used it to fight for a better education and world for their members and students.

Electives Build some mad skills in niche areas of union activism! Think how to make an impact in the 2020 elections, why apathy doesn't exist, why community schools—not charter schools—are our future, and more.

Action You don't need to wait to make a difference. You'll take brand new SLC skills from theory to practice in hands-on, real-time exercises.

Check out the course descriptions on February 21 at marylandeducators.org. Interested? Contact your local president—registration opens March 6.
