MSEA's INSTRUCTION & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

Saturday, March 18 • 9 a.m.–4 p.m.

DoubleTree By Hilton Baltimore - BWI Airport

890 Elkridge Landing Road, Linthicum Heights, MD 21090

Continental breakfast (8:15 a.m.) and lunch included.

Join us as we tackle classroom issues that support diverse learners and your professional growth.

Special guest and keynote speaker Lakeisha Steele, of the Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL), will focus on how the teaching profession has evolved throughout the pandemic to reconnect and support students and families, including through social and emotional learning.

Workshops fall under four strands:

- New Educator Survival 101
- School Engagement Reinvented
- Elevating Our Diverse Communities
- Collaboration within School Communities
