

Now is Our Time!

ELEVATING ESPs THROUGH COLLECTIVE ACTION

Professional Development Conference

Saturday, May 6, 2023 | 8 a.m.–3 p.m.
Maritime Institute, Linthicum Free Parking
Cost: $10 Continental breakfast and lunch included

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:
Friday, April 28 at 4 p.m.

Join us as we connect the dots from the ESP Bill of Rights to winning contract campaigns in workshops designed for support staff in every job category!

Special guest and keynote speaker 2022 NEA ESP of the Year Debra Ward-Mitchell is a proud paraeducator, union advocate, and organizer. She is also a state leader serving as vice-chair of the Illinois Education Association's (IEA) ESP Council and co-chair of the Organizing and Leadership Development Committee of IEA's RESPECT Campaign.

ARE YOU IN?

Use this QR code to register now!

You'll gain new insight on:

- How to Advance in Your Career
- ESP Power and RESpect—A Snapshot
- ESP and the Praxis Test
- How to Get the Most out of NEA Member Benefits
- Legal Rights for ESP
- What Every ESP Building Rep Should Know
- The MSEA ESP Bill of Rights and Bargaining in Your Local
- Trauma, Social Emotional Learning (SEL), and Verbal De-escalation

