

Paul Lemle for MSEA President

Current MSEA Director: budget, human/civil rights, and organizing

Past president, HCEA (Howard)

- Negotiated a step increase or more every year
- Elected a teacher, Eric Ebersole, to the General Assembly
- Built strong ties with churches, unions, and community groups, resulting in the removal and replacement of every incumbent on the Board of Education

Paul would be the first MSEA president:

- To achieve National Board Certification
- To have been a paraprofessional and special education teacher
- From a merged local (includes support professionals)

VISION for the FUTURE

- Smaller class size
- Better pay and benefits
- More educators in public office
- Claiming (and using) the right to STRIKE
